
Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Accounting, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 43-30301.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0301.02.
- What is the total cost of the Accounting degree program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $23,990.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $3,000.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
For students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, 36% completed in the published normal time frame. The total graduation rate as reported to U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for this period was 41%.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?
The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 80.9% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.
- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The median* loan debt for students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010 was $10,880.50 for public debt (Title IV loans).

*Median debt represents the mid-point in a list of all students carrying debt.

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in General Business Accounting, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 43-30301.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0301.01.
- What is the total cost of the General Business Accounting Certificate program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $13,460.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $2,000.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
The number of students who completed the General Business Accounting Certificate program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose completion rates in these cases.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?

The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 100% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.

- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The number of students who completed the General Business Accounting program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose median debt in these cases.

General Office Assistant

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in General Office Assistant, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (<http://www.onetonline.org>). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 43-9061.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0408.01.
- What is the total cost of the General Office Assistant Certificate program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $13,460.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $1,500.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
The number of students who completed the General Office Assistant Certificate program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose completion rates in these cases.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?
The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 75% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.
- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The number of students who completed the General Office Assistant program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose median loan debt in these cases.

Legal Office Assistant

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Legal Office Assistant, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 43.6012.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0403.01.
- What is the total cost of the Legal Office Assistant Certificate program?

The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $13,460.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $1,500.00.

- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?

The number of students who completed the Legal Office Assistant Certificate program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose completion rates in these cases.

- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?

The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 40% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.

- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?

The number of students who completed the Legal Office Assistant program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose completion median debt in these cases.

Medical Assisting -Certificate

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?

For more information about a career in Medical Assisting, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 31-9092.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 51.0801.01.

- What is the total cost of the Medical Assisting Certificate program?

The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $18,640.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $2,000.00.

- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?

The number of students who completed the Medical Assisting Certificate program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose completion rates in these cases.

- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?

The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 66.6% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.

- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?

The number of students who completed the Medical Assisting Certificate program is less than ten (10). For privacy reasons, the federal government requests that schools not disclose median loan debt in these cases.

Medical Assisting -Degree

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Medical Assisting, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 31-9092.00.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0403.02.
- What is the total cost of the Medical Assisting degree program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $26,830.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $2,500.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
For students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, 15% completed in the published normal time frame. The total graduation rate as reported to U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for this period was 41%.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?
The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 87.5% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.
- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The median* loan debt for students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010 was $19,202.50 for public debt (Title IV loans).

*Median debt represents the mid-point in a list of all students carrying debt.

Medical Coding and Billing

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Medical Coding and Billing, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 29-2071.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 51.0713.01.
- What is the total cost of the Medical Coding and Billing Certificate program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $18,140.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $2,000.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
For students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, 16% completed in the published normal time frame. The total graduation rate as reported to U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for this period was 41%.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?

The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 56.2% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.

- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The median* loan debt for students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010 was $14,281.37 for public debt (Title IV loans).

*Median debt represents the mid-point in a list of all students carrying debt.

Medical Coding Reimbursement Specialist

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Medical Coding Reimbursement Specialist, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 29-2071.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0403.02.
- What is the total cost of the Medical Coding Reimbursement Specialist degree program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $25,160.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $2,500.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
For students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, 20% completed in the published normal time frame. The total graduation rate as reported to U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for this period was 41%.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?
The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 79.1% of graduates found employment related to their field khamiltkhamof study.
- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The median* loan debt for students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30,2010 was $8,611.00 for public debt (Title IV loans).

*Median debt represents the mid-point in a list of all students carrying debt.

Medical Office Assistant

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Medical Office Assistant, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 43.6013.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0404.01.

- What is the total cost of the Medical Office Assistant Certificate program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $13,460.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $2,000.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
For students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, 15% completed in the published normal time frame. The total graduation rate as reported to U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for this period was 41%.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?
The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 91.6% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.
- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The median* loan debt for students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010 was $7,299.00 for public debt (Title IV loans).

*Median debt represents the mid-point in a list of all students carrying debt.

Office Technologies

00904300

Federal consumer disclosure information about this program

- How can I find out more about this career?
For more information about a career in Office Technologies, please visit the U.S. Department of Labor's O*NET website (www.onetonline.org). The Standard Occupational Code (SOC) for the career is 43-6011.00 and the Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code for this program is 52.0408.02.
- What is the total cost of the Office Technologies Degree program?
The total current tuition and fees for a student completing the program in normal time is $25,160.00 and the total additional cost for books and supplies is $3,000.00.
- What percentage of graduates complete the program in the normal time frame as published in the catalog?
For students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, 17% completed in the published normal time frame. The total graduation rate as reported to U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for this period was 41%.
- What percentage of graduates found employment related to their field of study?
The most recent annual report to our accrediting agency, the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), shows that 88.4% of graduates found employment related to their field of study.
- How much student loan debt does a typical graduate have to repay after graduation?
The median* loan debt for students who graduated between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010 was $12,221.00 for public debt (Title IV loans).

*Median debt represents the mid-point in a list of all students carrying debt.